

Every user action will be registered in a database. Administrator can later retrieve the user action history from the Admin panel.