

All the appointment and patient data is saved to a database. Registration worker can later check and alter the database. Doctor has a partial access to the database and can leave notes to each patient. Registration worker cannot see doctor notes on patients.